SUICIDE

Miss Irma Hineman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hineman, shot and killed herself about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at her parent's home on Shoal Creek about six miles west of Exeter. The bullet took effect in the right temple and death was instant. We are informed the members of the family were away from home at the time of the deed, except the father who was out in a field nearby. The cause of the suicide is not known. She left a note but the contents were not made known to the public. She was about 20 years of age and was a successful teacher. She enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of friends and was a young lady of many accomplishments. Her parents reside on the farm known as the Dude Salyer farm and came to that locality from Oklahoma about three years ago. The funeral services were held at the Concord Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Hickman, Monday afternoon. Interment was made at the Concord cemetery.—Cassville Republican.

REBELS TAKE TAMPICO AT HEAVY LOSS

Federals Retreat After Resistance Fails to Stop Foe

Washington, May 13.—Evacuation of Tampico by the federal garrison began at 12:15 p. m. today, according to a relayed wireless dispatch to the Navy Department from Rear Admiral Mayo.

That the rebels encountered desperate resistance in their final attack on Tampico and that they were compelled to carry their fight to the height of the town, was indicated by Rear Admiral Mayo's report. He said that at 1 o'clock this afternoon, when it was reported the rebels had occupied Tampico, there was heavy rifle firing in the plaza and that big gun firing continued.

Advices received by Constitutionalists here said the federals were evacuating Tampico, but details were lacking.

The federals were retreating by way of the railroad leading to San Luis Potosi and it was assumed they hoped to reach the terminus of the railway lines that leads indirectly to Mexico City.

The railroad out of Tampico to Monterey is held by the Constitutionalists.

MRS. ELIZABETH GOODNIGHT DEAD

Mrs. Elizabeth Goodnight, widow of the late George M. Goodnight, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Manley, in this city Monday night, May 11, 1914. The deceased had been in poor health for some months, suffering from paralysis and complication of other diseases. Though not until last week did her condition become serious.

Mrs. Goodnight was born April 3, 1842 in Giles county, Tenn., and moved with his parents to this county 1856 where she grew to womanhood. She was married to the late G. M. Goodnight in 1864. She was the mother of four children, two living. They are Mrs. C. D. Manley of this city and Mrs. Arthur Frost of Neosho.

Mrs. Goodnight was a member of the Methodist Protestant church. Her influence was always for good and in her death the community has lost an excellent Christian mother. She had resided in Cassville for a number of years and numbered her friends by her acquaintance. The members of the family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their loss of a devoted and sacrificing mother.

The funeral services were held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Manley, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Hickman. BRAD'S BIT O' VERSE

BY J. C. BRADSHAW

THE VILLAGE TIGHTWAD

Where'er the village tightwad goes, folks to themselves do say: "We ought to tweak his ugly nose and drive him far away; we ought to pull his whiskers out and pulverize his face and toss him limburger and kraut until he leaves the place." Seant welcome does the tightwad find within his native town; for folks despise his narrow mind, and pass him with a frown. He knocks each public enterprise, he grumbles at the tax, he's cunning, shrewd, and worldly wise, and stingy with his stacks. When other men sustain a loss, the neighbors come around and offer them a cow or boss, and help them till their ground; but let the tightwad get a sting by mortal or by fate, and folks will chuckle, grin and sing, and guy the poor old skate. The town would have a chance to live, and find its proper stride, if it would take a rail and give its tightwads alta ride; it might do something worth a while if each old grasping chump were carted to the tin can pile that lines the village dump.
